

COPE Asia Pacific Seminar 2011

PUBLICATION ETHICS AT THE FOUR POINTS OF THE JOURNAL EDITING COMPASS: 1ST ASIA PACIFIC COPE SEMINAR AND FORUM 2011

Monday 14 November 2011

Wiley-Blackwell Building, 155 Cremorne Street, Richmond, Melbourne, Victoria, Australia

Program

9.15 Registration

9.30 Welcome and Introduction

9.45 Hypothetical Ethics Case — written by Professor David Vaux and Dr Suzanne Morris

10.30 *Coffee

10.45 Publication ethics as a manifestation of professional ethics — Professor Alfred Allan

11.30 The range of conflicts of interest and how they should be managed — Dr Neville Gibbs

12.15 *Lunch, including Poster session

1.15 Duplicate and salami publications in science — Professor Richard O'Hair

2.00 Managing errors in the literature; whether inevitable, inadvertent, or intentional — Prof David Vaux

2.45 *Coffee

3.00 COPE Forum

4.50 Summary and Close

The COPE Seminar and Forum will be chaired by COPE Council members: Chris Graf, COPE Treasurer and Editorial Director at Wiley-Blackwell and Randell Stephenson, Editor-in-Chief of the Journal of Geodynamics and Reader in Geophysics at the University of Aberdeen, Scotland.