

SUBSCRIPTION RATES 2011

INDIVIDUAL JOURNALS

Applicants for Journal Membership must be:

- an Editor-in-Chief of a peer-reviewed scholarly journal; or
- a company or body whose primary business and object is publishing that includes the publishing of peer-reviewed scholarly journals.

Rates are based on the frequency of publication

<12 issue per year £150

≥12 issue per year £500

COMPANY MEMBERSHIP

No of journals	Cost per annum
1501 to 2000	£42,028
1001 to 1500	£30,030
501 to 1000	£17,535
251 to 500	£10,040
101 to 250	£9,090
51 to 100	£5,100
26 to 50	£3,120
11 to 25	£1,375
5 to 10	£650

If a company wishes to register fewer than five journals then cumulative journal by frequency of publication rates apply.

CONTINUOUS PUBLICAT ION

Publishing companies that wish to join COPE but do not have a discrete journal product published in intervals will be charged according to the number of articles that they publish a year.

No of articles	Cost per annum
1 to 100	£150
101 to 200	£300
201 to 300	£450
301 to 600	£500
>601	£1000

ASSOCIATE MEMBERSHIP AND ASSOCIATE CORPORATE MEMBERSHIP

Individuals may apply for associate membership, which is £50 per annum.

Companies may apply for associate corporate membership which is £150 per annum.

The eligibility criteria for associate membership and associate corporate membership are that the applicant must be a person or company who is interested in COPE's objects and who is working in or associated with the publication of peer-reviewed scholarly journals or has a significant interest in safeguarding the integrity of the academic record and who is NOT eligible for Full Membership.

NOTES

Prices in UK Sterling, no VAT is charged for membership.

Not-for-profit organisations, registered charities, journals from developing countries and cases of financial hardship may apply to COPE Council for discounted subscription rates.