GENERAL MEETINGS
23 The Charity shall hold a General Meeting in every calendar year as its Annual General Meeting in addition to any other General Meetings in the year. The Annual General Meeting shall be held on the date and at the time and place determined by the Council, and it shall be specified to be the Annual General Meeting in the notice calling it. Not more than fifteen months shall elapse between one Annual General Meeting and the next provided that so long as the Charity holds its first Annual General Meeting within eighteen months of its incorporation it need not hold it in the year of its incorporation or in the following year.

24 Any member who decides to move a resolution at the Annual General Meeting must give notice in writing to the Secretary not later than 28 days before the date fixed for such meeting. Such a resolution (unless relating to the exercise of a power conferred upon the Members expressly by the Companies Act or these Articles) if passed shall not be binding on the Charity and the Council but shall be taken into consideration by the Council.

25 All General Meetings, other than the Annual General Meeting, shall be called Extraordinary General Meetings.
26.1 The Council may whenever it thinks fit call General Meetings and, on the requisition of not less than one tenth of the Full and Associate Members entitled to vote shall forthwith proceed to convene an Extraordinary General Meeting.

26.2 Any requisition shall be in writing and shall express the object of the meeting proposed to be called and shall be left at the Registered Office of the Charity.

26.3 Upon receipt of such requisition the Secretary shall forthwith proceed to call an Extraordinary General Meeting. If he does not within 21 days from the date of deposit of the requisition notice to call one, the requisitionists may themselves convene an Extraordinary General Meeting.

NOTICE OF GENERAL MEETINGS

27 An Annual General Meeting and an Extraordinary General Meeting called for the passing of a Special Resolution or Resolution appointing members of Council shall be called by at least twenty one clear days’ notice. All other Extraordinary General Meetings shall be called by at least fourteen clear days’ notice. A General Meeting may, however, be called by shorter notice if it is so agreed.

27.1 In the case of an Annual General Meeting by all the Members entitled to attend and vote.

27.2 In the case of any other meeting by a majority in number of Members having a right to attend and vote, being a majority together holding not less than 95% of the total voting rights at the Meeting of all the Members.

27.3 The notice shall specify the time and place of the meeting and the general nature of the business to be transacted and, in the case of an Annual General Meeting, shall specify the meeting as such.

27.4 The notice shall be given in writing to all the Members and the auditors.

28 The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting by, any person entitled to receive notice shall not invalidate the proceedings at that meeting.

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

29 No business shall be transacted at any General Meeting of the Charity unless a quorum of Members is present at the time when the meeting proceeds to business. Twelve persons entitled to vote upon the business to be transacted and being Full or Associate Members present in person or by a duly authorised representative of a corporation or by a proxy of a Full Member shall be a quorum at any General Meeting.

30 If such a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting, the meeting, if convened on the requisition of Members, shall be dissolved and in any other case shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place or to such other day not less than seven and not more than twenty eight days after the meeting and at the time and place as the Council may determine. If at such adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for holding the meeting shall be dissolved.

31 The Chairman, if any, or in his absence the Vice-Chairman present shall preside as the chairman at Annual General Meetings and Extraordinary General Meetings, but if neither the Chairman nor the Vice-Chairman be present within five minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting and willing to act, the member of the Council present who has served longest and willing to act shall preside as chairman, but if there is no member of the Council present and willing to act, the Full and Associate Members present shall elect one of their number to be chairman.

32 The chairman of any General Meeting may, with the consent of a meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting), adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than business which might properly have been transacted at the meeting had adjournment not taken place. When a meeting is adjourned for fourteen days or more, at least seven clear days’ notice shall be given specifying the time and place of the adjourned meeting and the general nature of the business to be transacted. Otherwise it shall not be necessary to give any such notice.

33 A resolution put to the vote of a General Meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless before, or on the declaration of the result of, the show of hands a poll is duly demanded. Subject to the provisions of the Companies Act, a poll may be demanded:

33.1 by the chairman of the meeting; or
33.2 by at least three Members having the right to vote at the meeting being present in person or by a duly authorised representative (if a corporation) or by a proxy.

34 Unless a poll is duly demanded a declaration by the chairman that a resolution has been carried or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost, or not carried by a particular majority and an entry to that effect in the minutes of the meeting shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution.

35 The demand for a poll may be withdrawn before the poll is taken, but only with the consent of the chairman. The withdrawal of a demand for a poll shall not invalidate the result of a show of hands declared before the demand for the poll was made.

36 A poll shall be taken as the chairman directs and he may appoint scrutineers (who need not be Members) and fix a time and place for declaring the result of the poll. The result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll is demanded.

37 In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll the chairman of the General Meeting shall be entitled to a casting vote in addition to any other vote he may have.

38 No poll shall be demanded on the election of a chairman of a meeting or on a question of adjournment. A poll demanded on any other question shall be taken at such time and place as the chairman directs not being more than thirty days after the poll is demanded. The demand for a poll shall not prevent continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which the poll is demanded. If a poll is demanded before the declaration of the result of a show of hands and the demand is duly withdrawn, the meeting shall continue as if the demand had not been made.
39 No notice need be given of a poll not taken immediately if the time and place at which it is to be taken are announced at the meeting at which it is demanded. In other cases at least seven clear days’ notice shall be given specifying the time and place at which the poll is to be taken.

40 A resolution in writing signed or approved by letter or facsimile transmission by or on behalf of all the Members who would have been entitled to vote upon it if it had been proposed at a General Meeting shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a General Meeting duly convened and held. Any such resolution may consist of several documents in the like form each signed by or on behalf of one or more Members.

VOTES OF MEMBERS

41 On a show of hands every Full and Associate Member present in person or by a duly authorised representative of a corporation or (in the case of a Full Member) by a proxy shall have one vote and on a poll every Full and Associate Member present in person or by a duly authorised representative of a corporation or (in the case of a Full Member) by a proxy shall have one vote.

42 No objection shall be raised to the qualification of any voter except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is tendered, and every vote not disallowed at the meeting shall be valid. Any objection made in due time shall be referred to the chairman whose decision shall be final and conclusive.

43 The appointment of a proxy should be in writing in the form prescribed by Council signed by the appointor or his duly authorised attorney as set out in the Regulations. An Associate Member shall not be entitled to appoint a proxy.

44 Only individuals who work in or are associated with the publication of scholarly and/or peer reviewed journals or who have a significant interest in the integrity of the scholarly record may be appointed as a proxy.

45 The appointment of a proxy (and the power of attorney or other authority, if any under which it is signed or a notorially certified copy) shall;

45.1 (in the case of an instrument in writing) be deposited at the Registered Office or at such other place within the United Kingdom as is specified for that purpose in the notice convening the meeting not less than forty-eight (48) hours before the time appointed for holding a meeting or adjourned meeting at which the proxy proposes to vote; or

45.2 in the case of an appointment in an electronic communication, where an address has been specified for the purpose of receiving electronic communications,

45.2.1 in the notice convening the meeting; or
45.2.2 in any instrument of proxy sent out by the Charity in relation to the meeting; or 45.2.3 in any invitation contained in an electronic communication to appoint a proxy issued by the Charity in relation to the meeting, be received at such address not less than forty-eight (48) hours before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in the appointment proposes to vote; or

45.3 in the case of a poll be deposited or received as aforesaid not less than twenty-four (24) hours before the time appointed for the taking of the poll, and in default of the deposit, delivery or receipt in a manner aforesaid the appointment of a proxy shall be treated as invalid.

45.4 The appointment of a proxy shall continue until such time as it expires or is revoked by the appointor.

46 A vote given or poll demanded by a proxy shall be valid notwithstanding the previous determination of the authority of the person voting or demanding a poll or death of the appointor unless notice of the determination or death was received by the Charity at the Registered Office or at such other place within the United Kingdom at which the instrument of proxy was duly deposited or, where the appointment of the proxy was contained in an electronic communication, at the address at which such an appointment was duly received before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote is given or the poll demanded or (in the case of a poll taken otherwise than on the same day as the Meeting or adjourned meeting) the time appointed for taking the poll.

47 In Articles 45 and 46 “address”, in relation to electronic communications, includes any number or address used for the purposes of such communications.

POWERS OF THE COUNCIL

48 The business of the Charity shall be managed by the Council who may exercise all such powers of the Charity as are not required to be exercised by the Charity in General Meeting. Any such requirement may be imposed either by the provisions of the statutes for the time being in force and affecting the Charity or by the Articles, but no amendment to the Articles shall invalidate any prior act of the Council which would have been valid if that amendment had not been made.

COMPOSITION OF THE COUNCIL

49 The Council shall consist of:

49.1 the Officers; and

49.2 not more than fourteen persons elected by full and associate members with voting rights or (if the candidate is unopposed) by the approval of the Council as Ordinary Council Members; and

58 All Officers shall be appointed by the Council. The procedure for the nomination and appointment of such Officers shall be as defined in the Regulations. The results of such appointments shall be declared at the Annual General Meeting next following the appointment.

59 All Officers shall hold office for a period of two years from their appointment at the end of which they shall retire but be eligible for re-appointment to that office for one further consecutive term of two years.
59.1 If an Officer resions and has already served more than 6 years (either as an Ordinary Council Member and/or as Officer), they shall immediately cease to be a member of Council.

59.2 If an Officer resions and is within their second elected term as a Council Member they may nonetheless complete their term as a Council Member until they have served either 6 years (either as an Ordinary Council Member and/or as Officer) or until the end of that second term, whichever is the shorter. Alternatively the resigning Officer may elect to resion their seat on Council as well and shall give notice of their intentions in this regard at the same time as tendering their resignation as an Officer. In the event of a resigning Officer resigning their seat on Council that seat shall remain vacant until the next round of elections takes place.

59.3 If an Officer resions and is still within their first term as a Council Member they may nonetheless complete their term as a Council Member, at the end of which they shall retire but be eligible for re-election to Council as an Ordinary Council Member for one further consecutive term of three years. In the event of a resigning Officer resigning their seat on Council that seat shall remain vacant until the next round of elections takes place.

They shall be eligible for re-election to Council at the next election as an Ordinary Council Member but will only be eligible to serve up to a maximum of six years in total.

60 The Council may at any time appoint a Council Member to fill a vacancy in any Office (even if he is already an Officer). Any person so appointed shall hold office until the next Annual General Meeting.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE COUNCIL

61 Subject to the provisions of the Articles, the Council may regulate their proceedings as they think fit. The Chairman or any two members of the Council may, and on the request of the Chairman or any two members of the Council, the Secretary shall, at any time summon a meeting of the Council by serving (except in the case of an emergency) at least fourteen days’ notice on each member of the Council at his address. In the case of an emergency, the period of notice shall be such as may be expedient. A member of Council who is absent from the United Kingdom shall not be entitled to have a notice of meeting sent to him abroad, unless he has previously provided to the Charity his address outside the United Kingdom or an email address for the service of notices.

62 Questions arising at a meeting of Council shall be decided by a majority of votes. In the case of an equality of votes, the chairman of the meeting shall have a second or casting vote.

63 The quorum for the transaction of the business of the Council shall be at least six members of the Council.

64 The Chairman, or in his absence, the Vice-Chairman, shall chair all meetings of the Council at which he shall be present, but if at any meeting neither the Chairman nor the Vice-Chairman is willing to preside or neither is present within five minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the member of the Council present who has served the longest shall chair the meeting.

65 Whenever a member of the Council has a personal interest in a matter to be discussed at a meeting of Council or a committee the member of Council concerned must:

65.1 declare an interest at or before discussion begins on the matter;
65.2 withdraw from the meeting for that item unless expressly invited to remain in order to provide information;
65.3 not be counted in the quorum for that part of the meeting;
65.4 withdraw during the vote and have no vote on the matter.

66 All acts bona fide done by the Council or any of its committees, or by any person acting as a member of the Council, shall, despite the later discovery that there was some defect in the appointment or continuance in office of any member of the Council or of any committee or that he was disqualified, be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed, had duly continued in office and was qualified to be a member of the Council or member of the relevant committee.

67 The Council shall cause proper minutes to be made of the proceedings of all meetings of the Charity, the Council and its committees, and all business transacted at such meetings. Any such minutes, if purporting to be signed by the chairman of the meeting or by the chairman of the next succeeding meeting, shall be sufficient evidence without any further proof of the facts stated in the minutes.

68 The Council may act notwithstanding any vacancy in its body, but, if and so long as its number is reduced below the number fixed by or pursuant to the Articles as the necessary quorum of members of the Council, the Council may act for the purpose of increasing the number of members of the Council to that number or of summoning a General Meeting of the Charity but for no other purpose.

69 A resolution in writing of the Council or of any of its committees signed or approved by letter or facsimile transmission by all the members of the Council or all the members of the committee entitled to receive notice of a meeting of the Council or of its committees shall be as valid and effective as if it had been passed at a meeting of the Council or (as the case may be) its committees duly convened and held. Such a resolution may consist of several documents in the same form, each signed or approved by one or more members of Council or members of the committees of the Council, as the case may be.

70 All or any of the members of the Council or any committee of the Council may participate in a meeting of the Council or that committee by means of a conference telephone or any communication equipment which allows all persons participating in the meeting to hear each other. A person so participating shall be deemed to be present in person at the meeting and shall be entitled to vote or be counted in a quorum accordingly. Such a meeting shall be deemed to take place where the largest group of those participating is assembled, or, if there is no such group where the chairman of the meeting then is.
The employees of COPE, (including but not limited to the administrator, the operations director and the editor of the newsletter) may attend the council meetings by invitation, but are not entitled to speak except by invitation of the Council or to vote at council meetings.

The Ombudsman should attend the council meetings but is not entitled to speak except by invitation of the Council and is not entitled to vote at Council’s meetings.

The Council may delegate any of its powers or discretions to committees consisting of such persons as the Council may think fit. All such committees shall, in the exercise of powers so delegated, conform to any regulations imposed on them by the Council. The meetings and proceedings of all committees shall be governed by the provisions of the Articles for regulating the meetings and proceedings of the Council so far as applicable and except where these Articles or any regulations of the Council otherwise provide. All committees shall fully report their acts and proceedings to the Council as soon as is reasonably practicable.

The Executive Committee of the Council shall consist of the four Officers (Chair, Vice-Chair, Treasurer and Secretary) and the Executive Committee shall have the power to co-opt any Council member or COPE employee at their absolute discretion.

means as it may think fit to bring such regulations to the notice of Members. Regulations may concern the following subjects:

76.1 the procedure at General Meetings and meetings of the Council and its committees insofar as such procedure is not regulated by the Articles;
76.2 the procedure for, and the conduct of, nominations and appointments and/or elections of Officers and other members of the Council insofar as not regulated by the Articles;

84.2 pay reasonable and proper remuneration to any corporate body acting as such a nominee in pursuance of this Article.

CORPORATION ACTING BY REPRESENTATIVES AT MEETINGS
85 Any one of the directors or secretary for the time being of any corporation which is a Full Member, or any other person appointed by resolution of the directors or other governing body of such corporation, may (subject to the articles of association or other governing documents of that corporation) act as its representative at any General Meeting of the Charity and the person so authorised shall be entitled to exercise the same powers on behalf of the corporation which he represents as that corporation could exercise if it were an individual Full Member.

INDEMNITY
86 Subject to the provisions of the Companies Act, every member of the Council, or other officer or auditor of the Charity, shall be indemnified out of the assets of the Charity against any liability incurred by him in that capacity in defending any proceedings, whether civil or criminal, in which judgment is given in his favour or in which he is acquitted or in connection with any application in which relief is granted to him by the Court from liability for negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust in relation to the affairs of the Charity.

DISSOLUTION
87 Clause 8 of the Memorandum of Association of the Charity relating to the winding up and dissolution of the Charity shall have effect as if its provisions were repeated in the Articles.

NOTICES
88 Any notice to be given to or by any person pursuant to the Articles (other than a notice calling a meeting of the Council or any of its committees) shall be in writing or shall be given using electronic communications to an address for the time being notified for that purpose to the person giving the notice.
89 The Charity may give any notice to a Member either personally or by sending it by post in a prepaid envelope addressed to the Member at his registered address or by leaving it at that address or by giving it using electronic communications to an address for the time being notified to the Charity by the member.

90 Proof that an envelope containing a notice was properly addressed, prepaid and posted shall be conclusive evidence that the notice was given. Proof that a notice contained in an electronic communication was sent in accordance with guidance issued by the Institute of Chartered Secretaries and Administrators or as set out in Regulations shall be conclusive evidence that the notice was given. 91 In Articles 88 and 89 “address” in relation to electronic communications includes any number or address used for the purpose of such communications.
