

COPE North American Seminar and Forum 2011 “Authorship”

Forum: Monday 31 October 2011 (2 to 5 pm – members are encouraged to submit cases for discussion)

Seminar: Tuesday 1 November 2011 (10–5 pm)

Natural Sciences Auditorium, University of California, San Diego, Gilman Dr, La Jolla, California, USA

Seminar programme 1 November

09.30 Coffee and registration

10.00 Welcome and introduction to COPE (Virginia Barbour, Secretary of COPE)

10.10 Ghosts, guests, and other distortions of authorship in medical and scientific journals – Lisa Bero, Professor of Clinical Pharmacy and Health Policy, UCSF

11.00 Coffee

11.30 What is ORCID and why is it relevant for editors? – Dave Kochalko, Vice President of Product and Market Strategy at Thomson Reuters

12.15 Various issues in mathematical publishing – Robert Guralnick University of Southern California and Managing Editor of Transactions of the American Mathematical Society

1.00 Lunch

2.00 Workshop breakout sessions with discussion of cases

3.15 Tea

3.45 Workshop feedback and discussions (chaired by Geri Pearson)

4.15 Open session: what would you like COPE to do for you?

4.45 Summary and close