

Conflict of interest form for council

Name: Jason Hu

Date: 1 March 2022

Conflicts of interest (COI) arise where there is a divergence between an individual's responsibilities to COPE Council and their other interests, such that an individual's motives might be compromised, or perceived to be compromised. COIs are important since Council members' opinions and actions must be, and be seen to be, impartial. COI of all council members are collected on election and annually thereafter.

COI include, but are not limited to, the following. Council members are required to disclose any of the following:

All relevant financial relationships with commercial interests (entities producing, marketing, re-selling, or distributing goods or services) in any amount as well as the nature of the relationship (personal or immediate family) within the past 5 years, eg;

none

- Grant/research support:

none

- Consultancies:

none

- Membership of speakers' bureaux:

none

- Patent ownership:

none

- Membership of scientific advisory board:

none

- Membership of board of directors:

none

- Stock shareholding (directly purchased):

US/Nasdaq: Microsoft, Facebook, ARKW, VOO, QQQ,

Hong Kong Stock market: WUXI Bio, Fit Hon Teng

- Other financial support (eg, honoraria, travel grants, gift, royalties) (please specify): none

Any non-financial relationships/affiliations relevant to COPE (please specify): Currently work at Taylor & Francis, which is a member of COPE

Further information
Charity Commission

http://www.charitycommission.gov.uk/charity_requirements_guidance/charity_governance/good_governance/conflicts.aspx

While COIs will be reviewed annually, they must also be specifically declared at the beginning of each Council or Forum meeting or before participation in any complaints processes. COIs are posted on COPE's website.