Conflict of interest form for council and trustees

Name: Suzanne Farley
Date: 06 May 2020

Conflicts of interest (COI) arise where there is a divergence between an individual’s responsibilities to COPE Council and their other interests, such that an individual’s motives might be compromised, or perceived to be compromised. COIs are important since Council members’ opinions and actions must be, and be seen to be, impartial. COI of all council members are collected on election and annually thereafter.

COI include, but are not limited to, the following. Council members are required to disclose any of the following:

All relevant financial relationships with commercial interests (entities producing, marketing, re-selling, or distributing goods or services) in any amount as well as the nature of the relationship (personal or immediate family) within the past 5 years, e.g.;

- Grant/research support: Wellcome Trust and Medical Research Council research grants (spouse)
- Consultancies: None
- Membership of speakers’ bureaux:
  - World Congress of Research Integrity 2019 SY10 (Data sharing and responsible conduct of research: Sharing industry experiences as part of the research transparency environment); no payment
  - European Medical Writers Association 2020 (title TBC); payment of travel/accommodation costs
- Patent ownership: WO2014202998A1 (spouse)
- Membership of scientific advisory board: None
- Membership of board of directors: None
- Stock shareholding (directly purchased): None
- Other financial support (eg, honoraria, travel grants, gift, royalties) (please specify): Employee of Springer Nature

Any non-financial relationships/affiliations relevant to COPE (please specify): None
Further information
Charity Commission
http://www.charitycommission.gov.uk/charity_requirements_guidance/charity_governance/good_governance/conflicts.aspx

While COIs will be reviewed annually, they must also be specifically declared at the beginning of each Council or Forum meeting or before participation in any complaints processes. COIs are posted on COPE’s website.