

Conflict of interest form for council

Name of COPE Council Member: Vivienne C. Bachelet

Date: January 15, 2017

Journal Name (if editor): Medwave

Publisher: Medwave Estudios Limitada

Conflicts of interest (COI) arise where there is a divergence between an individual's responsibilities to COPE Council and their other interests, such that an individual's motives might be compromised, or perceived to be compromised. COIs are important since Council members' opinions and actions must be, and be seen to be, impartial. COI of all council members are collected on election and annually thereafter.

COI include, but are not limited to, the following. Council members are required to disclose any of the following:

All relevant financial relationships with commercial interests (entities producing, marketing, re-selling, or distributing goods or services) in any amount as well as the nature of the relationship (personal or immediate family) within the past 5 years, eg;

- Grant/research support:

My position as editor-in-chief of Medwave is not paid. My stipend comes from my responsibilities as managing director of Medwave Capacitación Limitada and Medwave Estudios Limitada. I founded both companies.

I have several ongoing epidemiological studies commissioned by the Ministry of Health, the Ministry of Social Planning and the Social Security Superintendence, all of these in Chile.

I own the office space that Medwave companies use.

My partner is an architect and earns a monthly salary in this capacity.

As of the last quarter of 2016, I joined the faculty of Universidad de Santiago de Chile, in the School of Medical Sciences as academic and investigator. My appointment is ¾ time and it partially covers my duties as editor-in-chief of Medwave.

I have no other financial interests to declare.
