

Conflict of interest form for council

Name: David Ofori-Adjei
Date: January 1, 2018

Conflicts of interest (COI) arise where there is a divergence between an individual's responsibilities to COPE Council and their other interests, such that an individual's motives might be compromised, or perceived to be compromised. COIs are important since Council members' opinions and actions must be, and be seen to be, impartial. COI of all council members are collected on election and annually thereafter.

COI include, but are not limited to, the following. Council members are required to disclose any of the following:

All relevant financial relationships with commercial interests (entities producing, marketing, re-selling, or distributing goods or services) in any amount as well as the nature of the relationship (personal or immediate family) within the past 5 years, eg;
Grant/research support: None
Consultancies: Johnson & Johnson Global Public Health Fellowship Program
Membership of speakers' bureaux: None
Patent ownership: None
Membership of scientific advisory board: None
Membership of board of directors: Glico Healthcare (Private Health Insurance Company in Ghana)
Stock shareholding (directly purchased): None
Other financial support (eg, honoraria, travel grants, gift, royalties) (please specify): None

Any non-financial relationships/affiliations relevant to COPE (please specify):

Editor in Chief of Ghana Medical Journal Co-Director, African Journals Partnership Program

Further information

Charity Commission

http://www.charitycommission.gov.uk/charity_requirements_guidance/charity_governance/good_governance/conflicts.aspx

While COIs will be reviewed annually, they must also be specifically declared at the beginning of each Council or Forum meeting or before participation in any complaints processes. COIs are posted on COPE's website.