

Conflict of interest form for council

Name: Jigisha Patel

Date: 1st February 2023

Conflicts of interest (COI) arise where there is a divergence between an individual's responsibilities to COPE Council and their other interests, such that an individual's motives might be compromised, or perceived to be compromised. COIs are important since Council members' opinions and actions must be, and be seen to be, impartial. COI of all council members are collected on election and annually thereafter.

COI include, but are not limited to, the following. Council members are required to disclose any of the following:

All relevant financial relationships with commercial interests (entities producing, marketing, re-selling, or distributing goods or services) in any amount as well as the nature of the relationship (personal or immediate family) within the past 5 years, eg;
<ul style="list-style-type: none">Grant/research support: None
<ul style="list-style-type: none">Consultancies: I am a self-employed consultant. I work with various organisations on publication and research integrity related issues. I work with, but am not an employee of, Maverick Publishing Specialists as an Affiliate Specialist.
<ul style="list-style-type: none">Membership of speakers' bureaux: None
<ul style="list-style-type: none">Patent ownership: None
<ul style="list-style-type: none">Membership of scientific advisory board: I am a member of the 10th congress on peer review and scientific publication advisory board and Editorial Board Member of Research Integrity and Peer Review Journal
<ul style="list-style-type: none">Membership of board of directors: None
<ul style="list-style-type: none">Stock shareholding (directly purchased): None
